Keith E. Fryer

Keith E. Fryer, a founding member of Fryer, Shuster & Lester, P.C., concentrates his practice in the area of personal injury, representing clients for injuries suffered as a result of motor vehicle and truck collisions; product defects; and unsafe conditions at private and public premises. Having practiced personal injury law for over 30 years, Keith is a member of the State Bar of Georgia (Litigation Section), the Georgia Trial Lawyers Association (Champion Member), American Association for Justice, and The American Bar Association.

Areas of Practice:

- Litigation
- Personal Injury

Bar Admissions

- District Court, Northern District of Georgia
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Eleventh Circuit
- Georgia Court of Appeals
- Georgia Supreme Court

Education

- Washington University (B.A., 1977)
- University of Georgia (J.D., 1980)

Keith has the distinction of being on a team of lawyers who successfully represented the family of Delia Bibbs at the trial of Bibbs v. Toyota where a verdict was obtained in Fulton County State Court in October, 1994 for a record setting $46.5 million in compensatory damages.

Keith has made a reputation for standing up to the insurance companies because he has never been reluctant to present his client's case to a jury. Keith has the law in his blood. His father, the late Joel J. Fryer, was a trial lawyer for over 30 years before being appointed to the Bench in Fulton County where he acted as a State Court Judge and then a Superior Court Judge for a total of 33 years before his retirement. Growing up around the Courthouse, Keith learned what it takes to effectively and successfully try a lawsuit, never backing down from the insurance company's lawyers and claims adjusters. Knowing a client's struggles during their period of recovery from a serious injury together with knowing how to best quickly and effectively handle the client's case is what keeps clients coming to Keith for help, relying on his abilities to manage their case, and trusting his judgment when the client's future is on the line.
